

Directions: From the 1850s to the 1930s, the United States conducted military interventions throughout Latin America and the Pacific during the era of overseas expansion and imperialism.

- Use Microsoft Word or Microsoft Publisher; an online app such as Canva, Adobe Spark, Postermywall, Venngage, Crello, or another application to create a digital poster highlighting one episode of imperialism from this era.
- You may choose for your poster to be in the format of either
 - a) a tourism poster emphasizing details about sights and scenes visitors would see during the place and time of the imperial intervention, or
 - b) a movie poster for a film about that the events of that place and time. The poster needs to include a catchy title, the “starring roles”, the “director” (individual most responsible for coordinating the events), the “executive producer” (US president at the time), and the “opening date” (when it happened).
